Introductory

It is a matter of some gratification that, after all, our Research Library is coming out with a list of its most valuable Sanskrit Manuscripts. It can hardly be called a detailed catalogue, not to speak of a descriptive and definitive one. But its merit lies in its potential to make some scholars, who otherwise are not aware of or have no access to this vritable trasure, conscious of its existence and thus may set in motion a precess of deeper study of the Manuscripts. It really is a matter of great anguish that we have not been able to keep up the magnificent tradition of publishing these manuscripts, so thoughtfully started by the Library authorities before 1947. It is time that we, in all humility, admit that it is one of the acts of ommission of which we have been guilty after achæving our Independence. The least we can do is to immediately reverse this downhill slide and make appropriate amends.

I hope that the Library will also bring out an even more lucid list of its Persian, Arabic and Kashmiri manuscripts, which are of immense research value for comprehensive and integrated Kashmir studies.

P R E F A T O R Y

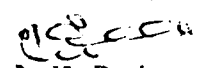

Research and Publication Department of Jammu and Kashmir Government possesses a rich collection of Sanskrit manuscripts on Literature, Rhetoric, Religion, Philosophy, Kashmir Shaivism, History, Erotics, Lexicography, Astrology, Astronomy, Medicines etc. Some of these are very rare and important from the historical and cultural point of view. A survey of the sanskrit manuscripts listed here reveals that they treat almost all the then known branches of Sanskrit literature. The material which has been treasured for more than seven decades has attracted the attention of the scholars from different parts of the country and have been making best use of these collections. This catalogue will be of use not only to scholars and specialists, but also to general readers who may like to know about the wealth of manuscripts in our State. While preparing the entries for the catalogue, it came to the notice of the compilers that there were many cases where a few manuscripts on different subjects were bound together in one cover which have also been incorporated in the list in detail. However, a few have been left out and the same will be taken up while preparing descriptive catalogue. Besides this the Research Library also has a large collection of miniature paintings which are outstanding in execution and quality and certainly rank among the finest specimens of artistic value. These paintings also include a few masterpieces executed in a cut-out fashion, a tradition unknown in the rest of our country. Meanwhile, it has been felt desirable to issue a catalogue of Sanskrit manuscripts to meet the long felt need of the scholars.

The catalogue (prepared in alphabetical order according to the title of the manuscripts) is mainly based on the non-descriptive draft catalogue prepared by Prof. Sri Kanth Kaul, Ex-Research Officer and Shri D.N. Yach, Ex-Head Pandit under the supervision of Prof. P.N. Pushp, Ex-Director of the Department.

We have great pleasure in acknowledging the co-operation we have received in preparing the catalogue from Mrs. Roopa Kothedar, Head Pandit, Miss Neelam Gadoo, Sanskrit copyist, Shri Bashir Ahmad Mir, Binder and Shri Abdul Majid Najar, Steno. In particular mention has to be made of Mr. Satish Kumar Kaul, Cameraman of the Department for his valuable assistance mostly of technical nature in giving the catalogue the final shape. This assistance was rendered by him despite his other pressing official duties.

Last but not the least, we express our profound sense of gratitude to Mr. Mohd Yousuf Taing, Director General Culture and Mr. Sarwar Hussain, Director Libraries for their co-operation and encouragement in this regard.
